New York, May 25.—Led by a surpliced youth holding aboft a goldon strom. Res. Dr. Theodore A Sedawiek, his two assistants, a vested choir, and more than 10s members of the confrequency of the Calvary Episcopal church, marched Sunday night from the church to Union square, where the rector appealed to a crowd of several theirsmand persons to return with him and attlend the Sunday night services. This is the fourth time since 1911 that Dr. Sedgwick had adopted this plan of attracting seople to his church.

After a short service in the park, the procession reformed and murched lines to the church with about 200 recruits fellowing. In the church the regular service was conducted.

Net Changes Are Unimportant After Brief Period of Better Prices.

NOTE-Quotations reflect closing sales.

New York, May 23.—The market closed heavy today. The brief period of activity and better prices resulting from the su-prome court deciden some gave way to a resumption of the early illeness. For the most part the net changes were unimportant.
